

A Weekend for Women
April 9 to 11, 2010

Community as a Context for Growth

We believe that each woman has a unique and significant role to fill in the world and that to recognize and develop her gifts she needs the support of other women. We invite you to join us “at the table of the harvest” for a weekend of sharing, encouragement, friendship, and fun as we explore the gifts that each of us wishes to offer to today’s world.

From the Goodenough Community Women's Leadership Team:

The women's cultural program encourages and supports self-development, helps women reach a greater connection with our inner source of feminine strength, celebrates who we are as women, and improves relationships with partners, family members, friends, and self.

Where and When:

The weekend workshop will take place at the Sahale Learning Center, near Belfair, Washington. The natural setting of Sahale invites you to periods of relaxation and reflection. Our program will start with dinner from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday evening, and our weekend will formally end at 3 p.m. on Sunday. Cost for the weekend is $200.
