About Sahale

Just 20 minutes from Belfair, Washington, Sahale is an easy drive from Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, and the Olympic Peninsula. Embraced by 65 acres of forest and valley and a mature orchard of many fruit trees, the land holds within its valley a sacred grove of cedars more than 300 years old—one of the possible sites for your wedding. The cathedral-like stillness here within this ring of cedars harmonizes with the flow of the Tahuya River, just yards away.

Choose some or all our services; you will find they are competitively priced.

We think brides have a right to a wedding setting they will remember all of their lives. Our site offers several potential places for your wedding ceremony:

- ❖ A large wedding tent with removable sides which can be a setting for your ceremony and/or reception for a group of 200 guests. The tent also has a large dance floor area.
- ❖ A relaxed, informal living room holding up to 40 people
- ❖ A lawn surrounded by flowering shrubs and gardens handling a group of up to 75 people
- ❖ Attractive decks with the valley and gardens as a back drop for a variety of sized groups
- ❖ A stately cedar grove by the river that holds well a group of 100 people

We strive to bring an intimate feeling tone to the occasion, no matter the size. Northwest weather concerns vanish under our 40 x 60-foot celebration tent. Services at Sahale Learning Center range from simply renting the facility to a comprehensive wedding package. Ordained clergy are available to help design and perform your wedding ceremony as well as provide prenuptial education.

Our site affords ample parking, rest rooms, and areas for dressing. There are also several areas for holding a reception: the living room and tent (on reverse) as well as a complete kitchen and dining room that opens out onto a patio and decks.

You may choose to have your rehearsal dinner at Sahale Learning Center and we have affordable overnight accommodations for up to 30 guests.

We have hosted events where more than 150 people were comfortably cared for.

Let us take the worry and rush out of your wedding in this beautiful space, aided by an experienced staff that can do almost everything for you from catering to parking cars. Our task is to help you create wonderful memories.
