

The Goodenough Community

May 2024 - Introducing the new
VILLAGE VIEW

Here it comes:
Memorial
Weekend
Work Party!

Don't miss our annual end of spring fling - time to finish getting Sahale looking her very best to start the retreat season! Mowing, trimming, painting, pruning, chipping, spiffing - the work feels like play when we're all together. Starting Thursday 5/23 with helping our Men's Culture raise the white tent, and ending Monday night - come for a day, or two, or 5! RSVP to Elizabeth Jarrett-Jefferson by Tues 5/21 so we can plan to work - and play - in style.

2024 Summer Gathering

Check our website event page for all the details on this new version of our favorite summer learning EXTRAVAGANZA

Featuring acclaimed facilitator Dr. Betty Martin, author of The Art of Receiving and Giving - The Wheel of Consent.

Have you heard? Our community is exploring a partnership with

Greater Penninsula Conservancy

to secure protected

Conservation Easement Status for some of the land at Sahale!

More information about this exciting project coming soon!

Have YOU contributed to our WELL FUNDRAISER?

Contributions are currently at $15,000 and growing - we're almost half-way to our goal. Drilling is expected to begin this November. CLICK HERE for more information and to donate to the long-term development of our beloved Sahale.

Next Women's Culture Zoom gathering: June 15th, 10am - 1pm

Our new leadership team:
Elizabeth Jarrett-Jefferson,
Maryann Schumacher,
Rose Buchmeier,
Sule-Marie Casagrande,
Laura Sweany and Emeritus
Hollis Guill-Ryan welcome all female-identified folks to our group. Practicing deep listening and sharing while supporting one another is our goal and our joy! For information, reach out to Laura Sweany at goodenoughcommunity@gmail.com.

NICA Retreat!

The NW Intentional Community Association is holding their

Spring Community Gathering

at Sahale Learning Center Friday, May 31 - Sunday, June 2

This year's theme is “Building Resilient Communities for an Intentional Future”
